Time Commitment: Leave IDFG Office in Idaho Falls at 1:00pm, Return around 8pm. Could be earlier or a bit later depending on amount of fish.

Description : One to two volunteers needed each day. Volunteers will ride up to Burns Creek (past Heise on the river road) with one of our fisheries technicians. Or at Pine creek you will need to drive alone in a vehicle I will provide. Once there the volunteer(s) will mostly be writing down data and helping to sort fish out of the weir. Lifting a few buckets of water is helpful but the technician can do all that if needed. Then the Volunteer will help scan fish and record data.

What to Bring: Please dress for the changing weather (possible rain or cold) and bring snacks or lunch and water to get you through. You will be on dry land but the fish splash in the bucket so a soft shell jacket and good boots are recommended.

Physical Demands: Data entry, slight lifting, working outside.

To sign up: E-mail is preferred or call and text me (number below).
